

Bruce's Music Recommendations: Volume 7

David Bruce

Copyright 2021 by Bruce D. Bruce

Feel free to give free copies of this little book to anyone.

Feel free to copy the format of this little book and write your own little book of music recommendations.

If you like just one out of every ten of my recommendations, I consider that an absolute win.

As we all know, the first sixteen-year-old girl in charge of the WWW frequently changes things, so prices and availability of my recommendations may change without warning. (All of the sixteen-year-old boys who have been in charge of the WWW did the same things.)

This little book contains many Web page addresses. When in case of doubt, to help see if a Web page is safe, use

<https://transparencyreport.google.com/safe-browsing/search>

If you are OK with paying for the music, you can use PAYPAL or CREDIT CARD, but I recommend that you buy yourself a Bandcamp gift card so that you don't need to keep track of many small transactions. Songs almost always can be purchased separately so you don't have to buy a full album unless you want to.

Music: “I Just Cut My Surf Finger”

Album: POOL PARTY EP

Artist: Los Surfer Compadres

Artist Location: Monterrey, Mexico

Info: “John Nunnally, a fan, wrote, “From Monterrey, Mexico comes seven songs and one 20-second intro that features seagulls, waves, and a lonely surfer. Three of these songs are really good originals. The other four songs are even better covers of ‘Pipeline,’ ‘Miserlou,’ ‘Having an Average Weekend,’ and ‘Walk Don’t Run.’ I love everything here, but Miserlou really stands out because it has a short intro featuring a vintage recording of the song followed by a great rendition of the song by Los Surfer Compadres. Favorite track: ‘Misirlou.’”

Chapter 35: Zoe FitzGerald Carter — “I Wanna be a Teenage Boy”

Music: “I Wanna be a Teenage Boy”

Album: WATERLINES

Artist: Zoe FitzGerald Carter

Artist Location: Berkeley, California

Info:

“The album straddles a range of musical styles. My musical roots are pretty firmly planted in Americana and folk but I’ve come to love the complexity and texture of jazz and Latin music, some of which found its way onto the album. I even ventured into funk on ‘I Wanna Be A Teenage Boy,’ co-written with San Diego keyboardist, Hindy Bare, during the Kavanaugh hearings. We were both going crazy, but at least we got a cool bass line out of it.”

APPENDIX C: FAIR USE

This communication uses information that I have downloaded and adapted from the WWW. I will not make a dime from it. The use of this information is consistent with fair use:

§ 107. Limitations on exclusive rights: Fair use.

Release date: 2004-04-30

Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 106 and 106A, the fair use of a copyrighted work, including such use by reproduction in copies or phonorecords or by any other means specified by that section, for purposes such as criticism, comment, news reporting, teaching (including multiple copies for classroom use), scholarship, or research, is not an infringement of copyright. In determining whether the use made of a work in any particular case is a fair use the factors to be considered shall include —

- (1) the purpose and character of the use, including whether such use is of a commercial nature or is for nonprofit educational purposes;
- (2) the nature of the copyrighted work;
- (3) the amount and substantiality of the portion used in relation to the copyrighted work as a whole; and
- (4) the effect of the use upon the potential market for or value of the copyrighted work.

The fact that a work is unpublished shall not itself bar a finding of fair use if such finding is made upon consideration of all the above factors.

APPENDIX D: ABOUT THE AUTHOR

It was a dark and stormy night. Suddenly a cry rang out, and on a hot summer night in 1954, Josephine, wife of Carl Bruce, gave birth to a boy — me. Unfortunately, this young married couple allowed Reuben Saturday, Josephine’s brother, to name their first-born. Reuben, aka “The Joker,” decided that Bruce was a nice name, so he decided to name me Bruce Bruce. I have gone by my middle name — David — ever since.

Being named Bruce David Bruce hasn’t been all bad. Bank tellers remember me very quickly, so I don’t often have to show an ID. It can be fun in charades, also. When I was a counselor as a teenager at Camp Echoing Hills in Warsaw, Ohio, a fellow counselor gave the signs for “sounds like” and “two words,” then she pointed to a bruise on her leg twice. Bruise Bruise? Oh yeah, Bruce Bruce is the answer!

Uncle Reuben, by the way, gave me a haircut when I was in kindergarten. He cut my hair short and shaved a small bald spot on the back of my head. My mother wouldn’t let me go to school until the bald spot grew out again.

Of all my brothers and sisters (six in all), I am the only transplant to Athens, Ohio. I was born in Newark, Ohio, and have lived all around Southeastern Ohio. However, I moved to Athens to go to Ohio University and have never left.

At Ohio U, I never could make up my mind whether to major in English or Philosophy, so I got a bachelor’s degree with a double major in both areas, then I added a Master of Arts degree in English and a Master of Arts degree in Philosophy. Yes, I have my MAMA degree.

Currently, and for a long time to come (I eat fruits and veggies), I am spending my retirement writing books such as Nadia Comaneci: Perfect 10, The Funniest People in Comedy, Homer’s Iliad: A Retelling in Prose, and William Shakespeare’s Hamlet: A Retelling in Prose.

By the way, my sister Brenda Kennedy writes romances such as A New Beginning and Shattered Dreams.
